Crude tanker spot rates continue to soften this week while clean tanker rates remained steady. Scorpio Tankers (NYSE: STNG) announced the sale of five MR product tankers (52,000 DWT/Built 2014 at Hyundai Mipo) to The National Shipping Company of Saudi Arabia (Bahri) for $166 mill. en bloc or about $33.3 mill. each. The sale will strengthen their balance sheet as net debt to capital drops to about 50% (from 54%) with these sales. These 5 vessels will be added to the Bahri fleet that consists of 36 VLCC's, 4 Mr's, and one aframax on the water plus 10 VLCC's under construction at Hyundai Samho that will be delivered in 2017-2018. Bahri also picked up a 5 year old VLCC for $75 mill.

The BDI had a second week of steady but small improvement and closed at the 327 level. However, sentiment is still negative and the bulker market remains in the deep doldrums. Time charter rates for Pacific rounds for Cape bulkers are still in the low $2,000/day levels.

Hyundai Group has confirmed the sale of their bulk carrier business for almost $450 mill. to private equity group Hanh & Co. (owner of H-Line Shipping) in an inter Korea deal. The package includes Hyundai Merchant Marine's twelve bulk carriers plus three more bulkers on order as well as long-term contracts with steel producer POSCO and logistics company Hyundai Glovis. HMM will get $100 mill. and Hanh & Co. will take HMM's debt of $350 mill. Hanh & Co. transports iron ore, coal, LNG and other raw materials with its fleet of thirty-six vessels of which twenty-nine are bulk carriers.

Have a good weekend.
